

Prevent duty

Essential that staff identify children who may be vulnerable to radicalisation and know what to do when identified. Children can also be protected by promoting fundamental British values. We use the eYfs to monitor and understanding of the world.

4 main areas

Risk assessment we are expected to assess the risk of children being drawn into terrorism by identifying the risks in the area and to identify children at risk of radicalisation and how to support them. Be aware of online risks. Be alert to changes in behaviour. Procedure should be in safeguarding policy. All concerns reported to Val who should report to Channel.

Working in partnership

Local safeguarding board